WE ALL HAVE ONE PURPOSE

Project partners met in the welcoming Romania led by one aim. The main goal of the project is to promote students' and teachers' understanding of wedding traditions in the world, cultural heritage, enrich students' knowledge and develop their language skills.

ACTIVITIES

The whole week was active and full of excitement. On the first day of the meeting, the project participants were greeted by students and teachers of the Seminarul Teologic Liceal Orthodox School with bread and salt in their hands. The guests were pleasantly surprised by the warm reception - the students not only prepared a beautiful musical performance, but also invited them to meet with the mayor of the town.

THE AIM OF THE MEETING

Subsequently, each country participating in the project presented the activities implemented in their schools. The members of the project were welcomed by the team of inspectors general of the Erasmus + project in Botosani, we got to know the city and its culture and learned traditional dances.

THE THINGS WE WON'T FORGET

We visited the fortress, the monastery, the UNESCO heritage buildings and the sights of the Bucovina region in Suceava. It was a great opportunity to learn about the ancient traditions of our ancestors.
